The Heavy Hitters are a powerhouse collective of veteran Connecticut musicians whose chemistry was forged onstage long before they ever became a band. What began as an open mic project among some of the region's most seasoned players quickly evolved into a dynamic, road ready ensemble with more than 150 years of combined experience—and a shared ability to deliver hundreds of songs on the fly with uncanny precision.

Known for their elite musicianship, deep catalog, and electrifying live energy, The Heavy Hitters bring audiences the rare thrill of hearing their favorite songs performed with the authenticity and excitement of the original artists. It's no wonder they've been praised as a "remarkably singular" group rising far above the typical cover band scene.

Whether lighting up festivals, clubs, or private events, The Heavy Hitters deliver a show that feels like a greatest hits concert—every single time.
